THE PROCESS FOR COMPENSATION

1. Get an application by doing one of the following:
 - Contact your local Victim Witness Program- they can help you through much of the process.
 - Print the application from our website at www.virginiavictimsfund.org or have an application mailed to you by calling 1.800.552.4007.
2. Fill out the application, have it notarized, and return to VVF by mail or in person.
3. You will receive a letter from VVF asking for any additional information, if needed. Once all necessary documents are collected, you will receive a decision letter on your claim. Please be aware it could take up to 6 months.
4. Any reimbursement owed to you will arrive via check within 30 days of the award letter. If the money is owed to the provider, VVF will pay them directly.

This chart highlights the main differences between the SAFE (Sexual Assault Forensic Exam) Payment Program and the VVF (Virginia Victims Fund)

SAFE Payment Program and Virginia Victims Fund Comparison Sheet

	SAFE Claims	VVF Claims
What is the purpose of the program?	Pay expenses for gathering evidence through a medical forensic examination for victims of sexual assault.	Pay crime-related expenses for victims who have suffered physical or emotional injury due to a violent crime.
How is a claim initiated?	Medical providers submit the Request for Payment Form to SAFE.	The victim or their claimant submits a VVF claim form.
Who is responsible for providing required information?	Medical providers. Required documents: Request for Payment Form, itemized detailed bill, and an explanation of insurance benefits paid/denied (when applicable).	VVF will obtain the complete police report and court case information. The victim is responsible for providing expense-related information.
Is the victim required to report the crime and cooperate with investigation and prosecution efforts?	No, with an exception. Victims are not required to report the crime nor participate with the criminal justice process. However, forensic examinations for non-acute sexual assault cases do require prosecutor or law enforcement authorization.	Yes. Victims must report the crime within 120 hours, or show good cause, and must also cooperate with all investigation and prosecution efforts.
What is the time allowance for filing a claim?	Within 1 year from the date of service.	Within 1 year from the date of crime , or show good cause.
What expenses are eligible for reimbursement?	Expenses directly related to the collection of evidence through a medical forensic exam. See second page for complete list of eligible expenses.	Expenses associated with death or physical or emotional injury as a direct result of a crime (such as homicide, robbery, sexual assault, physical assault, etc.), including but not limited to treatment of injuries and follow-up care, mental health counseling, wage loss, funeral expenses, moving expenses, etc.
What is the maximum amount of reimbursement?	No maximum , but subject to the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) on file with provider.	Maximum total award is $25,000 , subject to the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) on file with provider.
When should an expense be submitted through insurance?	The claim must be submitted through federally funded insurance before claim can be reimbursed by SAFE. The victim may choose whether to bill private insurance.	All collateral resources including federally funded insurances, private health insurance, and hospital charity care must be utilized before the claim can be reimbursed. In some cases, claimants must submit expenses to homeowners, renters, automobile, life, or other insurances.
Who receives payment?	Payments are made to the medical provider.	Expenses are paid to whom the money is owed. If a provider is unpaid, payment will be made to the provider. If a claimant paid out-of-pocket for expenses, payment will be made to the claimant. VVF does not pre-pay for any services.
Can providers pursue collection action against the victim while claims are pending?	No. Providers are prohibited by law from putting a patient into collections after a claim has been filed, until a decision has been made.
